

Bushey Hall Golf Club Social membership 2007

At Bushey Hall Golf Club, we like to offer our services to both Golfers and non Golfers so that everyone can enjoy what the club has to offer

Therefore we offer social membership with a dedicated team to look after everyone who joins us here at Bushey Hall golf club.

Social Membership

This type of membership is tailor made for all you non-golfers who want to enjoy all the amenities at Bushey Hall Golf Club without having to show a golfing technique

A fully licensed bar and restaurant set in the Hertfordshire Countryside in picturesque parkland is the perfect place to enjoy social events with friends, colleagues and family.

The grade II listed building is a traditional timbered construction with breathtaking views of the course. This entire clubhouse can be hired out for larger extravagant functions such as birthdays and weddings thanks not only to its unique setting but its friendly efficient and above all enthusiastic staff.

The Price for social Membership is £100 per couple per year
Each person will receive a levy card worth £20 to spend in the clubhouse and if you decide that you would like to use the course, you are very welcome by paying the standard green fee rate.

(Single price is £65 per person per year with £25 going towards the levy card)
